PROCLAMATION

- Whereas, despite advances in medical technology and research, men continue to live an average of five years less than women with Native American and African American men having the lowest life expectancy; and
- Whereas, COVID-19 variants continue to spread across the country, with the Centers for Disease Control reporting that males are more likely to die from this pandemic; and
- Whereas, encouraging safe behaviors including social distancing, wearing masks, and being vaccinated will help stop the spread of COVID-19; and
- Whereas, educating the public and health care providers about the importance of a healthy lifestyle and early detection of male health problems will result in reducing rates of mortality from disease; and
- Whereas, men who are educated about the value of preventative health can play in prolonging their lifespan and their role as productive family members will be more likely to participate in health screenings; and
- Whereas, fathers who stay connected to their children and maintain a healthy lifestyle are role models for their children and have happier, healthier children; and
- Whereas, Men's Health Network worked with Congress to develop National Men's Health Awareness period as a special campaign to help educate men, boys, and their families about the importance of positive health attitudes and preventative health practices; and
- Whereas, the Men's Health Month web site has been established at www.MensHealthMonth.org and features resources, proclamations, and information about awareness events and activities, including Wear Blue for Men's Health (www.WearBlueForMensHealth.com); and
- Whereas, Morgantown Men's Health Month will focus on a broad range of men's health issues, including heart disease, mental health, diabetes, prostate, testicular and colon cancer; and
- Whereas, the citizens of this city are encouraged to increase awareness of the importance of a healthy lifestyle, regular exercise, and medical check-ups.

Now therefore, I, Jenny Selin, Mayor of the City of Morgantown, West Virginia, on behalf of the City Council, do hereby proclaim June 2022 as in the City of Morgantown and encourage all citizens to pursue preventative health practices and early detection efforts throughout the year.

Seal:

Jenny Selin, Mayor
